THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND •ROADCASTING (KUMARI GIRDA VYAS); (a) Yes, Sir. The Newsprint Allocation Policy, 1991-92 has been announced on 4-10-1991.

(b) The main features of the new Kolicy and some of the changes vis-a-vis the earlier Policy are detailed in the statement attached. (See below)

(c) The reaction of ths newspaper in dustry has been mixed. In some cases it has been positive, in some cautious.

Statement

Changes/modifications made in Newsprint Allocatur Policy, 1991-92 as compared to previous year's Policy;

1. Newsprint will be allocated to the newspapers only after they are registered with the Registrar pf Newspapers for India and have been in regular publication for atleast one year. Earlier a newspaper became entitled to newsprint from day one, even be-˙fore it was registered with the RNI.

2. Biweeklies and tri-weeklies will not be eligible for Glazed newsprint. The minimum regularity norm for them Is now 90 per cent as in the case of dailies hitherto. Earlier their regularity norms were the same as prescribed for periodicals.

3. Unlike in the past, the consumption of WPP or any other paper consumed by Ae newspapers outside the RNI allocation will not be taken into account while determining the entitlement of a newspaper for the allocation of newsprint for the year 1991-92.

4. The newspaper establishments have already been allowed to lift their indigenous quota of newsprint from any scheduled mul(s) of their choice W.e.f. 1-4-1991.

To the newspapers with annual unit-tlement of more than 200 MT indigenous newsprint will be allocated on half yearly basis while imported newsprint will be released quarterly. Earlier, indigenous newsprint was also allocated on quarterly basis to this category of newspapers.
